

5. The utilization reports shall be submitted to the Contract Administrator via electronic mail in a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet format, or other methods such as direct access to Internet or other databases.
6. If requested by the Contract Administrator, the Contractor agrees to provide supporting Purchase Order detail records on a mutually agreed magnetic media in a mutually agreed format. Such requests shall not exceed twelve per year.
7. The failure to file the utilization reports and fees on a timely basis shall constitute grounds for the removal of the Contractor's primary representative, suspension of this Agreement or termination of this Agreement for cause.
8. The Contract Administrator shall be allowed access to all reports from all Purchasing Entities.

B. Participating Entity Reports and Fees

1. Participating Entities may require an additional fee be paid directly to the State on purchases made by Purchasing Entities within that State. For all such requests, the fee level, payment method and schedule for such reports and payments shall be incorporated in a Participating Addendum that is made a part of this Agreement. The Contractor may adjust PSS pricing accordingly for purchases made by Purchasing Entities within the jurisdiction of that State. All such agreements shall have no effect whatsoever on the WSCA fee or the prices paid by the Purchasing Entities outside the jurisdiction of the State requesting the additional fee.
2. The Contractor agrees to provide additional reports to Purchasing Entities upon agreement by both parties as to the content and delivery method of the report. Methods of delivery may include direct access to Internet or other databases.
3. Each State Purchasing Entity shall be allowed access to reports from all entities within that State.

45. Default and Remedies

- A. Any of the following shall constitute cause to declare this Agreement or any order under this Agreement in default:
 1. Consistent nonperformance of contractual requirements; or
 2. A material breach of any term or condition of this Agreement.
- B. A written notice of default, and an opportunity to cure within 30-days notification of the written notice, shall be issued by the party claiming default, whether the Lead State (in the case of breach of the entire Agreement), a Participating Entity (in the case of a breach of the participating addendum), the Purchasing Entity (with respect to any order), or the Contractor. Time allowed for cure shall not diminish or eliminate any liability for liquidated or other damages.
- C. If the default remains after the opportunity for cure, the non-defaulting party may:
 1. Exercise any remedy provided by law or equity;
 2. Terminate the Agreement, a Participating Addendum, or any portion thereof, including any Purchase Orders issued against the Agreement;
 3. Impose liquidated damages as mutually agreed by the parties, as specified in an Amendment to a Participating Addendum;
 4. In the case of default by the Contractor, and to the extent permitted by the law of the Participating State or Purchasing Entity, suspend Contractor from receiving future solicitations from within the Participating Entity's jurisdiction.

46. Audits

- A. The Contractor agrees to assist the Contract Administrator or designee with web site Product and pricing audits based on mutually acceptable procedures.
1. The product audit will closely monitor the products and services listed on the website to insure they comply with the approved products and services. The addition of products or services not approved by the Contract Administrator will not be tolerated and may be considered a material breach of this Agreement.
- B. Upon request, the Contractor agrees to assist Participating Entities with invoice audits to ensure that the Contractor is complying with this Agreement in accordance with mutually agreed procedures set forth in the Participating Addendum.

47. Extensions

If specifically authorized by provision in a Participating Addendum, the Contractor may, at the sole discretion of the Contractor and in compliance with the laws of the Participating State, offer Products and services to non-profit organizations, private schools, Native American governmental entities, government employees and students within the governmental jurisdiction of the entity completing the Participating Addendum with the understanding that the State has no liability whatsoever concerning payment for products or services.

48. Sovereign Immunity

The State does not waive its sovereign immunity by entering into this Agreement and fully retains all immunities and defenses provided by law with regard to any action based on this Agreement, except that the State agrees that it will be subject to legal process and the jurisdiction of competent jurisdiction with regard to any action by Contractor against the State for enforcement of its obligations or for breach of contract hereunder..

49. Ownership

- A. Ownership of Documents/Copyright. Any reports, studies, photographs, negatives, databases, computer programs, or other documents, whether in tangible or electronic forms, prepared by the Contractor in the performance of its obligations under the Agreement and paid for by the State shall be the exclusive property of the State and all such material shall be remitted to the State by the Contractor upon completion, termination or cancellation of the Agreement. The Contractor shall not use, willingly allow or cause to allow such material to be used for any purpose other than performance of the Contractor's obligations under the Agreement without the prior written consent of the State.
- B. Rights, Title and Interest. All rights, title, and interest in all of the intellectual property rights, including copyrights, patents, trade secrets, trade marks, and service marks in the said documents that the Contractor conceives or originates, either individually or jointly with others, which arise out of the performance of the Agreement and are ordered as a work product, will be the property of the State and are, by the Agreement, assigned to the State along with ownership of any and all copyrights in the copyrightable material. The Contractor also agrees, upon the request of the State, to execute all papers and perform all other acts necessary to assist the State to obtain and register copyrights on such materials. Where applicable, works of authorship created by the Contractor for the State in performance of the Agreement shall be considered "works for hire" as defined in the U.S. Copyright Act. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as transferring any right, title, or interest in any of the Contractor's or their third party's confidential information, trademarks, copyrights, intellectual property or other proprietary interest.

50. Prohibition Against Gratuities

- A. The State may, by written notice to the Contractor, terminate the right of the Contractor to proceed under this Agreement if it is found by the State that gratuities in the form of entertainment, gifts, or otherwise were offered or given by the Contractor or any employee, agent, or representative of the Contractor to any officer or employee of the State with a view toward securing this Agreement, or securing favorable treatment with respect to the award or amendment of this Agreement, or the making of any determinations with respect to the performance of this Agreement.

- B. The Contractor certifies that no elected or appointed official or employee of the State has benefitted or will benefit financially or materially from this Agreement. This Agreement may be terminated by the State if it is determined that gratuities of any kind were either offered to or received by any of the aforementioned individuals from the Contractor, its agent, or its employees.

51. Antitrust

The Contractor hereby assigns to the State any and all claims for overcharges as to goods and/or services provided in connection with this Agreement resulting from antitrust violations which arise under antitrust laws of the United States and the antitrust laws of the State.

52. Right to Publish

- A. Any publicity given to the program, publications or services provided resulting from the Agreement, including but not limited to notices, informational pamphlets, press releases, research, reports, signs, and similar public notices prepared by or for the Contractor, or its employees individually or jointly with others, or any subcontractors or resellers shall identify the State as the sponsoring agency and shall not be released, unless such release is a specific part of an approved work plan included in the Agreement prior to its approval by the Contract Administrator.
- B. The Contractor shall not make any representations of the State's opinion or position as to the quality or effectiveness of the products and/or services that are the subject of this Agreement without the prior written consent of the Agreement Administrator. Representations include any publicity, including but not limited to advertisements, notices, press releases, reports, signs, and similar public notices.

53. Performance While Dispute is Pending

Notwithstanding the existence of a dispute, the parties shall continue without delay to carry out all of their responsibilities under this Agreement that are not affected by the dispute. If a party fails to continue without delay to perform its responsibilities under this Agreement, in the accomplishment of all undisputed work, any additional cost incurred by the other parties as a result of such failure to proceed shall be borne by the responsible party.

54. Hazardous Substances

To the extent that the goods to be supplied to the Purchasing Entity by the Contractor contain or may create hazardous substances, harmful physical agents or infectious agents as set forth in applicable State and federal laws and regulations, the Contractor must provide the Purchasing Entity with Material Safety Data Sheets regarding those substances (including mercury). A copy must be included with each delivery.

55. Customer Satisfaction/Complaint Resolution

- A. The Contractor's process for resolving complaints concerning products, support, and billing problems is attached as Exhibit B.
- B. The Contractor will submit a format for a survey for approval by the Contract Administrator. The Contractor will survey its customers in each Participating State two (2) months prior to the annual meeting with the Contract Administrator.

56. Value Added Services

The Contractor is expected to provide such services as installation, training, and software imaging upon request of the Purchasing Entity. Additional Value Added Services offered by the Contractor are attached as Exhibit C, including relative costs associated with those services.
